

Zinc Privacy Policy

Zinc respects your privacy and will always go to great lengths to keep the information you share with us safe but to make your visit a pleasant one and serve you well, we sometimes need to find out information about you. We do not wish to use your information in any way that would cause concern.

The privacy statement below outlines some of the things we do to assure you of our strong commitment to information privacy.

In some parts of the website Zinc will ask you for personal information, including your email address. This information will only be used for the purposes stated and will not be disclosed beyond Zinc without your consent.

Zinc may use your nominated email address for administrative purposes or, if you opt to join our newlists, Zinc may send you invitations, marketing material or news updates.

We will not use your e-mail address for any other purpose and will not sell it to other parties without your consent.

Zinc logs the following information for statistical purposes:

- ◆ Your IP address;
- ◆ The date and time of the visit to the website;
- ◆ The pages accessed and documents downloaded;
- ◆ The type of web browser used.

Zinc logs all files and images downloaded from our website to analyse usage for administrative purposes.

No attempt will be made to identify users or their browsing activities except, in the unlikely event of an investigation, where a law enforcement agency may exercise a warrant to inspect our logs. Zinc, to the extent legally possible, will not release any detailed information from these logs.

Your web browser will need to accept cookies to access certain features of the website. Our website makes minimal use of cookies and only uses them to enable more rapid identification of your particular computer and server.

The information you provide through the website will be kept secure within Zinc. We take reasonable care to ensure that personal or personally identifying information is stored securely. Transmissions sent to or from our website are routinely monitored for quality control and systems administration. Security procedures are in place to ensure that the personal information provided to us is protected from unauthorised access or use. If you have registered on our website, your personal information is password protected to prevent unauthorised access.

Zinc does not store or see your credit card details.

Zinc does not divulge your personal information to third parties for their commercial use.

To find out what personal information we have about you, or to amend any such information you can email us at info@zinc.com.au
